Terms and Conditions of Usage

- 1. This certificate expires 24 months after the date of purchase of the Ambassador's contract. This certificate is a free certificate that has been given to you by a family member, friend or colleague. You should not pay to receive this certificate. The Ambassador Program is not available in the State of Iowa in the United States and is not valid for residents of Iowa, nor for residents of Mexico.
- This certificate is valid exclusively for an 8-day, 7-night stay at a Vidanta destination in the accommodation type similar to the accommodation type specified on your Ambassador's membership contract.
**If cohabiting adult couple, both must travel together.*
- In order to use this certificate, you must call the Vida Vacations reservation center in Mexico at 1-800-292-9446 to make a reservation. You must complete your travel no later than the expiration date set forth above.
- A usage fee for the size of unit reserved plus a $50 usd Administration Fee must be paid at the time of booking a reservation. Payment must be made by credit card; cash and other forms of payment will not be accepted. Payments are non-refundable in the event of cancellation. At the time of making a reservation the certificate holder must provide the certificate number shown on the certificate.
- Reservations with this certificate can be booked a maximum of 5 months in advance of the arrival date and are subject to availability. Arrival days for this program are Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday at any of the participating destinations. This certificate entitles you to 1 stay and you may not break the total number of available days/nights into more than 1 non-consecutive stay.

Accommodations for nights included in this certificate must be used consecutively.
- When checking in at the resort the certificate holder must present this original certificate, government-issued identification, a valid credit card
- and confirmation of the reservation with your certificate number, given by the Customer Care Center. If you are unable to present the original certificate, we may charge you the current room rack rate for the accommodations.
- This certificate is exclusively for the recipient of this certificate and is not transferable. The Ambassador is not allowed to stay in the same unit or accommodation nor to use the same reservation as the recipient of this certificate. Participating resorts reserve the right to: i) refuse to honor any certificate containing alterations, deletions, erasures or additions to the text, and ii) cancel the certificate and your participation in the program if the Participating resort detects that the certificate and/or the program is being used for any purpose other than what it is intended for, at the sole discretion of the Participating resort.
- This certificate is for accommodations only and does not include food, beverages, amenities, taxes, gratuities, service charges, incidental items or other items.
- Vida Vacations and its affiliates are not responsible for any acts of God and/or any other circumstances beyond our control, causing destinations to become unavailable if such an event occurs. Vida Vacations will make a reasonable attempt to provide substitute accommodations at a different destination and/or on a different date.
- This certificate is a one-time benefit and additional certificates may not be used by the holder or any direct family member or member of the holder's household. The certificate cannot be combined with any other promotion or certificate and is not redeemable for cash or credit. This certificate may not be used by current or former members of any participating resort or their affiliated resorts. Once this certificate is used, it may not be reused by you or anyone else.
